

Peer Leaders for Team-Based Learning (Chem 111 or 112)

- PLTL is a small-group learning program in which 8 students work with a peer-leader to collaborate on problem solving. PLTL problems are closely related to the course content, but emphasize communication and building connections.
- PL qualifications: Chem 111/112 (grade of B) and show strong communication skills. Willing to facilitate problem-solving sessions with a group of 8 current students and keep attendance. Receive 2 credits of Chem296. (1 hr meeting/training on Wed at 5:30; 1.5 hr PLTL; 2 hr prep).
- Contact Prof. Knapp to learn more: mknapp \(at\) chem.umass.edu